Mutual relations between the Customer and the Seller are governed by the laws and regulations of the Republic of Latvia.

When ordering a Product via the Online Store kartes.lv, the Customer agrees to the Product Sale Regulations (hereinafter the Regulations) as well as when the Order is confirmed by the Customer, it is considered as a Distance Agreement between the Seller and the Customer.

In the event of questions or discrepancies the Customer shall contact the Seller by telephone, shall use the e-mail address kartes@kartes.lv, or call +371 22019364. To the extent possible, the Parties shall resolve all discrepancies through negotiations.

The Seller has the right to amend these Terms and Conditions.

Conditions for Purchase

Execution of the Order is available to the Customer with or without registration on the Website.

All Product prices on the Website kartes.lv are indicated including value added tax.

When ordering, it is necessary to specify the e-mail address so that a waybill-invoice and other required documentation may be sent to the Customer.

A sending fee is applied to all orders where the value of the Products is less than 14.99 euros and it depends on the delivery option and the country of destination (see Delivery).

Receipt of Products in the office of LLC Karšu izdevniecība Jāņa sēta is free of charge.

In the Baltic states (Latvia, Lithuania and Estonia) the delivery fee is not applied if the total amount of Products selected by you is 15 euros or more.

Before executing the Order, the Customer has the right to contact the Seller to clarify the Product details. If the Customer has not asked the Seller for detailed explanations, it is considered that the Customer, upon executing the Order, had no doubt as to the properties of the Product.

In the event that there is not a sufficient quantity of Products in the Seller's warehouse the Seller is entitled to cancel the given item in the Customer's Order, notifying the Customer about it by sending a notice to the email address specified by the Customer.

Owners of the Online Store kartes.lv are not responsible for image colour parameter delivery to the Customer's display.

Online Store kartes.lv reserves the right not to complete the order if the Online Store fails to contact the Customer via the phone number or e-mail specified by him.

In the event of questions, it is possible to call +371 22019364 or write to the e-mail address: kartes@kartes.lv

Payment

Payment for the Order on the Website is made through the payment system Paysera or by bank transfer.

Authorisation services in bank card operations or internet banking are provided by Paysera. When opting for bank transfer, an electronic invoice will be sent to you within 24 hours after placing the Order. If the invoice has not been received, please contact us at kartes@kartes.lv. Product dispatch is performed within 1 (one) business day after the receipt of payment.

Delivery

Products are delivered all over the world.

Product delivery in the Baltic states is free of charge if the value of the Order is 15.00 euros and more.

Product delivery costs are indicated when executing the purchase.

The Order is delivered to the Customer or a person specified in the Order as a recipient of the Order. The term for receipt of the Product depends on the timely payment for the Order by the Customer, type of delivery, the region and the country where the Product will be sent, the work of the appropriate delivery service providing for the delivery of the Order and not directly dependent on the Seller.

In most cases, in the Baltic states the Product is delivered within 1-3 business days from the moment of payment.
